Technisource Renews Agreement with Beckett Media to Manage Information Technology Services

DALLAS - (July 25, 2007) - Technisource, a national information technology service provider, has renewed its agreement with Beckett Media LP, the leading publisher of sports and specialty market collectible platforms in the U.S., to continue managing their information technology services for the next three years. Along with this contract renewal, Beckett has selected Technisource to lead their new strategic initiative of enhancing their top-rated e-commerce website.

Beckett's site, Beckett.com, ranked #351 on Internet Retailer's list of the top 500 Web retailers for 2007, ranking ahead of well known sites for Yankee Candle, The Men's Warehouse and PC Universe. The site is ranked as one of the top 10 retail sites worldwide within their market category.

"We are very pleased to have earned Beckett's continued trust as their outsourced IT provider," said Jay Graham, Technisource CIO and Principal. "Beckett Media is a fantastic customer with a very innovative vision for their e-commerce website - www.beckett.com. We are excited to be part of their team and look forward to continuing our partnership with Beckett Media."

Originally retained in 2005, Technisource manages Beckett's information technology services and development of their e-commerce website. With this $2.3 Million contract renewal, Technisource will continue in this role over the next three years. The new enhanced e-commerce site will incorporate Web 2.0 practices and feature several new and innovative features for the sports and specialty market collectors. The new site plans to launch in 2008.
