

Media Contact: Lesly Baer
800 422-3819
leslybaer@spherion.com

Technisource Names Ken Marshall as Corporate Controller

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - (July 17, 2006) - Technisource, a national information technology and engineering services provider, has appointed Ken Marshall as corporate controller. Based in the St. Louis office, he will manage all finance and administration activities for Technisource.

"Ken's knowledge and financial expertise will be essential to our success as Technisource continues to grow," said Ron McDaniel, chief financial officer of Technisource. "His experience will be a great asset to our team, and we look forward to his contributions."

Marshall has more than twenty years of experience in the finance industry. He most recently served as president and general manager of Imprintas AG. He formerly served as the director of financial shared services for Praxair, a packaged industrial gas supply company.

Marshall holds a master's degree in accounting from the University of Texas in Dallas, as well as a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Arkansas. He is also a certified public accountant.

About Technisource

Technisource, Inc. provides information technology and engineering services in more than 30 markets across the United States through three divisions: Technisource Consulting Services, Technisource Management Services, and Technisource Integration & Support Services. The company's customer base of Fortune 500 and middle market companies represents a wide variety of industries including: insurance, banking and finance, telecommunications, health care, manufacturing, retail and government. The company is headquartered in Little Rock, Ark. For more information, please visit www.technisource.com.

###